The power of voices united

Leverage our influence by promoting legislation that impacts women and families. Work towards ensuring that workingwomen have a powerful voice.

Support legislation on national issues critical to workingwomen—equal pay, small business interests, quality health care, workplace flexibility, Social Security and other workplace equity and work-life issues.

Lobby state and federal legislators through BPW State Legislative Day and at the annual Policy and Action Conference on Capitol Hill.

The power to help others

BPW/NC was founded on the premise of women helping women.

Empower workingwomen by working to advance issues addressed in the BPW/NC Legislative Platform.

Women Joining Forces is a program created to assist women veterans in their transition from military service into the civilian workforce.

The power to change the workplace

Be on the cutting-edge of legislation impacting women and their families as we work with legislators to shape policies that improve workplace conditions and empower workingwomen.

Raise public awareness of the need to change workplaces through special events including National Business Women's Week and Equal Pay Day.

BPW/North Carolina

BPW-NC fosters the success of workingwomen by providing career advancement resources, work-life strategies and personal and professional connections.
